

The Celebration of Worship

The Resurrection of Our Lord

Easter Worship Services: 8:00—9:30—11:00 AM

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery.
—Thank you

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.
FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Prayer Concerns Let us know how we can pray for you. Call the office: 303-776-8771.

Resurrection of Our Lord! Hallelujah! He IS risen!

April 4, 2010

Because He Lives!

How hard it is to believe in something so unfathomable as the Resurrection – the Resurrection of our Lord, and even more, our own Resurrection!

The angels asked those who came to the tomb, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He told you. . . .” Then they remembered His words.

My mother was a Christian, filled with the Spirit. Last July she was dying, and her granddaughter, her caregiver for more than five years, was at her bedside. Mom seemed to be fighting death. But when Jill reminded her, “Think what it will be like in heaven with Jesus, how wonderful it will be to see Grandpa and your Mother and Dad and all your brothers and sisters again,” Mom relaxed and was at peace. At those words, she stopped struggling, and after a short time, she died.

The blessed assurance of a Resurrection – not just hers, but a Resurrection of her loved ones, too—reminded Mom that death has no ultimate power. St. Paul writes, “Death is swallowed up in victory! O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?” Just as Jesus’ followers “remembered His words” after the angels spoke, Mom remembered His words and was at peace – safe in the arms of Jesus.

How great is our victory in Christ Jesus, our Lord! How blessed we are to know and remember His words of assurance! For because He lives, we, too, shall live. That is our great hope, and it rests on the promise of Jesus, our Risen Lord and Savior.

—Miles Olson
